AFTER THE JURY-FIXERS. A PRETTY GIRL AND A PRETTY FIGHT. DROVE INTO A DANGEROUS HOLE

Special Efforts Will Be Made to Find Out Who Handled the McKane Money.

IT IS SURE THAT BRIBERY WAS TRIED.

The World's Exposure of the Scenes in the Jury-Room Spurs the Prosecution to Benewed Exertions.

The exposure in The World yesterday morning of the fact that McKane had been used to induce Jurors Joseph A. Trapp and Robert C. Thomas to attempt to hang the McKane jury has spurred on the prosecution in their to prepare a case against the alleged jury-fixers. While Deputy Attorney-General Edward M. Shepard and his associates are very reticent, there is no doubt that they are working hard to get conclusive evidence against those who attempted by crime to free the Coney Island czar.

'If I am called before a Grand Jury I will tell all I know," said Juror Frank Bohl, yesterday. He added that while he was sitting in the court-room as a talesman a man respectably dressed. who sat beside him, leaned over and whispered in his ear that a fine house was awaiting him in Gravesend should out for McKane's acquittal. He decribed the man as of ordinary height.

out for McKane's acquittal. He described the man as of ordinary height, rather stout and wearing a small mustache, but he is not certain that he could now identify him.

A few days after the trial began, a man, who he thinks was one of McKane's representatives, called at his shop and said he wanted awnings made for a row of flats. The man attempted to draw Bohl's clerks out about their employer, and they grew suspicious. The awnings were never made.

In connection with the scenes in the jury-room, Bohl was asked whether he saw a roll of bills in Trapp's possession. "One of the jurymen," he replied, "had a large sum of money. I wen't say which one. Trapp is a bose plumber, and I did not understand, when the case was called, that he was out of work."

"Not before the contrary, I heard him object to who coing as a juror for $2 at a day when he coing as a juror for $2 at a day when he coing as a juror for $2 at a day when he coind have got $3.50 at his employment."

Juror Thomas was not at his home, No. 202 South First street, when a reporter called there yesterday. A young man, who said he was Thomas's nephew, stated that his uncle was at work, but would not say anything if seen." "His action speaks for itself," declared the young man, without a dollar. There was no money used upon him, because he was for conviction."

The young man would not say where his uncle was at work.

Neither was Juror Trapp at his home, No. 109 Summit street, when a reporter called there yesterday. A young man, who said he was Thomas's nephew, stated that his uncle was at work.

The young man would not say where his uncle was a twork.

The young man would not say where his uncle was a twork when he can be young man would not say where his uncle was a twork.

The young man would not say where his uncle was a promonenced it. She there was Juror Trapp at his home, No. 100 Summit street, when a reporter called there yesterday. A young man would not say where his uncle was a promonence of the promonence of the promonence of the promonence of t gave her son the day he went into the jury-box, accounted for the "big roll of bills."

Not a few of Trapp's neighbors expressed surprise that he had been selected as a McKane juror, for he was known to have been an active worker for the "ring" at the polls.

"Trapp's affilia.lon with the ring has been very close," said one of these neighbors. "He and als brother have been known as active workers for "King" Goffey. When Trapp was inspector of sewer connections he was accused by a Court street plumber of accepting bribe money, but the plumber falled to prove his charges.

Trapp was laid off as an inspector last December. He is now on the Civil-Service list for a job as city plumbing inspector. His sponsors are John Boyne, No. 71 Hamilton avenue: M. E. Dooley, No. 385 Court street; Joseph W. Smith, No. 18 Gartield place: Thomas Cullen, No. 310 Columbia street; John E. Murphy, No. 310 Columbia street; John E. Murphy, No. 310 Columbia street; and George Dominques, No. 108 Second place.

Juror William Walker, a watchman, of No. 209 Ninth street, vouched for the truth of yesterday's World story, He dealed, however, that he voted at any time for acquittal.

Prosecutor Jerry Wernberg said: "We have heard all sorts of rumors, just as you have, and we carefully follow them up, but we have secured no assured facts upon which to base action as yet. We will decide by Wednesday whether a special Grand Jury should be called for the May term. If such a Jury is called the jury-bribing cases and the city election frauds wil come before it."

Foreman D, H. Sackett said: "I am tired and sick of the whole thing. The THREE RUNAWAYS FROM THE CITY. They Managed to Get from Their Harlem Homes to Sandy Hook.

Three boys sought protection last night at the Spermaceti Life-Saving Station, ear Sandy Hook, of which Capt. John Edwarts is in charge. They are run-aways from New York, according to their story, and were pretty well tired out when they wandered into the sta-tion. They told Capt, Edwarts that they had been sent to school, but, instead of going there, had taken the steamer Sea Bird to the Highlands. From there they were making their way up to Sandy Hook. They were put to bed by the Captain.

Two of the boys are brothers named Blair, and the third is an Italian lad samed Carracioli. who says he resides at No. 114 West One Hundred and Third street.

If you wish for work with historian pay.

The World "ad" column is the road;
If you want good board at small outlay,
The World "ad" column is the road;
Or if you want a purchaser for anything
you've yot,
If you're looking for a chance to buy or fent a house and lot,
If there's anything on earth you went
and want it on the spot,
The World "ad" column is the road.

Two Men Come to Blows Over a Fair Unknown's Candy Bill and Caused a Sensation in Nassau Street,

A pretty young woman, wearing a tailormade gown and a costly hat, walked up Nassau street at 6 P. M. yesterday. Her manner indicated excitement. She would stop at the a narrow escape from death by drownbenana stands and push-carts lined up by the ing about 10 o'clock this morning. They sidewalk and examine the wares displayed, as hired a horse and carriage for an hour he be accepted as a juryman and hold are to be made within the next thirty throw open these opportunities to enter the public service to the competition of

Foreman D. H. Sackett said: "I am tired and sick of the whole thing. The article in this morning's World does not concern me. It concerns the three men accused. If they want me to make a statement I will do so. I think, as I have always said, that the whole matter had better be dropped. There could be ro question of McKane's guilt; he is receiving his punishment, and I don't see what more is necessary."

Regiment, with the rank of Captain. It has been known among his most intimate companions in the regiment for some days that he contemplated tendering his resignation. This action is not unexpected, as business cares, he has often said, left him too little time to devote to the difficult position he occupied in the regiment. Capt. Gould joined Troop A in 1888, but hurt his kneeccap one day in drill so that took his four-year-old daughter out for a walk at 7.30 P. M. yesterday. While he was talking with a neighbor in front of his home the child ran into the street and was run over by a team driven by William McGary, of No. 326 East Fifty-third street. She was carled into the house, and died within an hour. McGary was locked up at the Eldridge street station.

Genuine.

Men like genuine remedies. Humbugs may be content Swith inferior articles, but true men and women, boys and girls, will never be satdisfied with anything less than the best if within their reach. A Genuine, Cheap, Accessible remedy is an which will relieve every form of pain resulting from taking cold.

Allcock's Porous Plaster

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresenta-tions. Ask for Allcock's Forous Plaster, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

One Boy Got Out, and Joseph Scull Almost Lost His Life Saving the Other.

(Special to The World.)
ATLANTIC CITY, April 16.-Walton Cook and Joseph Holmes, two little Pittsburg boys, ten and twelve years old, guests at the Hotel Brighton, had cated excitement. She would stop at the beanan stands and push-carts lined up by the sidewalk and examine the wares displayed, as women so pretty and well dressed as she seidom do. When she reached the candy push-cart of Urich Lyfer, opposite the Potter Building, she took the dealer's breath away by ordering 5 ceuts' worth of candy for which she had no money to pay. He expostulated in several disliccts and a crowd collected quickly.

On the outside edge of the crowd were a lot district the outside edge of the crowd were a lot district the case of the crowd were a lot district the constant of the constant of the woman and at the to pay the 50 cents for the woman and at the to pay the 50 cents for the woman and at the to pay the 50 cents for the woman and at the to pay the 50 cents for the woman and at the to pay the 50 cents for the woman and at the top as the constant of the woman and at the top as the constant of the woman and at the top as the constant of the woman and at the top as the constant of the woman and at the top as the constant of the woman and at the top as the constant of the woman and the two closed in a rough-and-tumble fight. The crowd surged around them and the newboys saw their chance. They uset the candy cart and seuried away with the boot, Before the fighters were separated the woman was hysterical.

Policeman John Connell took her to the Oak street station, where, after she had a cup of the shore, only a few feet away, and streat station, where, after she had a cup of the shore, only a few feet away, and that she had been ill and had taken no her home and the police refused to reveal her name or address.

HERE'S A CHANCE FOR BRIGHT BOYS.

HERE'S A CHANCE FOR bright and the could make no hesaway. By-showed no evidences of intoxication and experience of the could make no hesaway. By-showed no evidences of intoxication and experience of the could make no hesaway. By-showed no evidences of intoxication and experience of the could make no hesaway. By-showed no evidences of intoxication and exp

Above Powder. five story building No. 29 Murray street human nature, not a place to degrade it. at 10.46 last night. The fire started in the | The State Board of Charities did its work printing department of George F. Brown thoroughly. It conducted an investigation & Co., stationers, who occupy both that really investigated. It neglected no deupper floors. By the time the engines talls. While taking testimony it saf eleven arrived in response to the first alarm times, aggregating twenty-five days. Its con the flames were coming from three clusions were the result of much labor and windows on the Murray street front were rendered carefully. Here is the first parand from one on the Church street side. agraph of the first of those conclusions The building runs through to Warren

The building runs through to Warren street.

Chief Bonner ordered a second alarm sent out, and a third before 11 o'clock. At that time the flames were bursting through the roof half way back to the Warren street side. The fact that there was some powder—only a few pounds it was said—in the store of Rand & Lafin, on the ground floor, made the crowd that gathered keep a respectful distance away, giving the firemen a good chance to work. When the men from fourteen engines, four hook and ladder trucks and one water tower got to work they soon had the fire under control, but not until the two upper floors had been gutted.

A special call was sent out at 11.10 for another water-tower from Thirteenth street and Fourth avenue, but it was not needed when it arrived.

The firms besides Brown & Co. that another water tower from Thirteenth United States Glass Company, of Pittsburg; the E. de la Chappelle Company, lamp-chimneys, and the American Vending Company. On the Warren street side, the Balley Cash Car Company and Peters & Caihoun, harness-makers, on the ground floor. The total damage is estimated: To the building, $3,000; to George F. Brown's stock, about $10,000; others, about $5,009.

And the gain that the matter of the matter o

the hearts of the "chappies" during the days when the stage door was a great Her marriage to Ben Tuthill, the theatri-

Her marriage to Ben Tuthill, the theatrical manager, a couple of years ago created considerable talk in the theatrical profession, as Mr. Tuthill had not been prominent in the train of sighing swains who had followed the pretty singer with piteous devotion. Tuthill's first wife, Ida Muile, had some time before secured a divorce from him.

There have been a series of misunderstandings between Tuthill and fair Sylvia, and twice before she left him, only to return upon his plea for forgiveness. Recently Tuthill was made manager of the Packard Theatrical Agency, in West Twenty-eighth street, and he and his wife took up a residence next door. Friday last Tuthill, it is said, came home in an irritable mood. The two went into a restaurant, and Tuthill became so abusive that his wife left the table and went home. He followed shortly afterwards, and, throwing himself on a sofa, at once went to sleep. Then Sylvia packed up her clothes and fied to the home of her mother. Mrs. Titus, No. 115 West Ninety-sixth street, where she lectares she will remain.

Mrs. Tuthill will probably return to the stage.

JUDGE COWING ON BROCKWAY.

In Sentencing a Prisoner He Hopes He May Not Fall Into the Arch-Torturer's Hands. Otto Maltella, seventeen years old, who stole $1,800 a month ago from his employer, John Ortolano, a fish dealer, employer, John Ortolano, a fish dealer, of No. 186 Bleecker street, and fied to Chicago, pleaded guilty yesterday in General Sessions and was sent to Elmira Reformatory by Judge Cowing.

In sentencing him Judge Cowing remarked that he hoped he would not fall into Brockway's hands.

"Conduct yourself properly," he said to Maltella, "and he won't have any excuse to maltreat you."

If in Want of Furniture an obti'n at FLINT's, 14th it. all the latest at a seprifice. They soon move to 23d at. ***

150 Buzzing Machines are going eight hours every day in

KEEP'S

Shirt Factory

on fine custom shirts. Never before have our fine shirts been so appreciated.

MADE TO MEASURE-6 for $9.00, unlaundered. 6 for 10.00, laundered. NONE BETTER AT ANY PRICE.

Fancy Shirtings. 500 choice designs to select from.

KEEP M'F'G CO., Broadway, bet. 11th & 12th Sts.

His Legal Judges and the Voice of Humanity Demand that His Cruelties Shall Cease.

FAIRLY TRIED AND CONVICTED.

Brockway, the Elmira paddler, has been ound guilty by the State Board of Charities The charges made by The World have been fully proven. Brockway has been condemned also by the unanimous voice of humanity QUICK BLAZE ON MURRAY STREET. Men and women in every part of the country Three Alarms for a Fire That Was Burning cruel and degracting punishment upon the e have told their opinion of the man who inflicts who are placed under his charge. They have A fire gained great headway before it said that a "reformatory" should be what itwas discovered on the top floor of the name indicates—a place to elevate and improve

"That the charges and the allegation against theGeneral Superintendent, Z. R. Brockway, of cruel, brutal, excessive, degrading and unusual punishment of the inmates are proved and most amply sustained by the evi ience, and that he is guilty of the same.

This is the gist of the matter. The board in heated it, and bent it around a post into a hook.

"When this hot iron was brought to you did you use any test to ascertain whether it was hot enough or too hos?" was asked.

"No. I used it just as it was brought to me," replied Winnie.

With such testimony as this it is not strange that Brockway has been condemned by all humane people. Here are more opinions to that effect:

Daniel F. Appleton, the publisher, said: "I have not followed the case very closely, but I should say that if Brockway has been found guilty by a perfectly impartial investigating committee of the charges br u; ht against him, he ought to be summarily removed without any consideration of an appeal. The plea of the Board of Managers for a new investigation ought not to be considered any more than the plea of a convicted burglar who had been tentened to Sing Sing, who appealed on the ground that the Judge was prejudiced against nim. If there was any objection it shaid have been filed before the verdict was given."

Lawyer Charles J. Osborne, of the Mutual Life Building, said: "I am not a penologist and consequently am not able to give expert testimony regarding the Brockway affair. Buttere is certainly no reason why an alleged reformer, who is a brute by his own confession if the reports of his testimony are true, should be allowed to hold his resistion pending further investigation. The Elmira Reformatory was supposed to be outside of politics when it was established by the State, but politics seems to have a strong hold upon it now.

"As I said before, I am not an expert on prison reform methods, but when such men as Ir. Parkhurst, Recorder Smyth, Inspector Byrnes and hundreds of others equally weil qualified to form opinions upon this matter, to say nothing of the public press generally, say that Brockway's methods are bad and that he is cruel and brattal, I cannot help thinking there must be some truth in the reparts. It does not seem possible that such men could condition of the public press generally, say that Brockway's methods are ba is cruel and brutal, I cannot help thinking there must be some truth in the reports. It does not seem tooseible that such men could easily make a mistake in their decisions upon so important a matter."

Dr. Austin Abbott, Dean of the New York University and author of many leval works, said: "I have never met Mr. Bros kway, and so am not influenced in my opinions by any personal friendship. I believed, when the resormatory was established upon the indeterminate sentence plan, that I represented the best methods of prison retorm. I have watched the work of the reformatory since then, from the outside, so to speak, and have always supposed it accomplished excellent results. I have, of course, looked upon Mr. Brockway as the champion of advanced penological theory and practice. But I may have been mistaken. It is certain that extreme methods of physical chastisement are as much to be deprecated in prisons and reformatories as in military and naval institutions. I have not read the testimony taken upon examination completely enough to express or even to form a final opinion,

OFFER FOR TO-MORROW These Great Values.

Moire Silk Capes, elaborately trimmed with jet and bourdon lace, large streamers of satin ribbon; worth $12.00, at 6.48.

Gloves.

Capes.

4-button, Paris made, real Kid, Gants de Suede; worth $1.25,

78°

Waists.

in Cambric and Percale, in choice colorings, full sleeves and butterfly ruffles; worth $1.00, at

58^{c.}

SIXTH AVE. & 15TH STREET.

OUR ENTIRE STOCK MARKED DOWN 33 1-3 PER CENT. FROM REGULAR PRICES.

THE NEW YORK FURNITURE CO.,

of the best English, French and German manufacture. for Ladies, Men and Chil-

To-Morrow.

MORLEY'S LADIES' BLACK Sheets COTTON HOSE,

25°-, 35°-, 50°-, 60°-, 75° pr

18th St., 19th St. and Sixth Ave.

THE WORLD'S Average Circulation for March, 1894,

39^{c.}

worth 65 cents, at

TUXEDO AIGRETTE, latest novelty 12C.

6TH AVE. & 15TH ST.,

Silk.

for Spanish Turbans, worth 20c., at

Wrappers. Merrimac Prints Wrappers

I rincess back, plaited front, voke edged with fine plaiting, worth $1.00, at

5,000 Yards Japanese Taffetine

Wash Silk, in 34 shades and patterns, exclusive designs,

Perfect-fitting House Waists, Dress Goods.

Strictly All-Wool Arabian Cloth and Regent Suitings, in plain colors and Cheviots, 38 inches wide, worth 59 cents, at 33°.

Lace.

Point de Gene, in solid and net top effects, 7 to 9 inches wide, in butter color, worth 50 to 65 cents, at Bangs Cut @ Curled, 10c.

PARLOR SUITS, CHAMBER SUITS, HALL RACKS, DESKS, &c., &c., AT LOWEST PRICES EVER NAMED.

D AT MINIANT O CO B. Altman & C. B.ALTMAN & CU

JET TRIMMINGS

38°.
48°.

and Pillow Cases.

Sheets 90x931/2 inches,

85 cts each.

Pillow cases 48x381/2 inches, 21 cts each.

SPAING OVERCOATS AND SUITS

Clothing nown for their superiority of style, an workmanship equal to the finest custom-made garments, at prices to suit every one.

Spring Gvercoats, $10, $12, $15 to $25. Men's Suits, $10, $14, $18 to $28.

VOGEL BROTHERS

8th AVE., COR. 42d ST. Special Men's Underwear,

OPEN EVENINGS.

Catalogue

Bloomingdales

35c., 50c., $1,00 and upward.

Gentlemen, keep in mind that our sale of the David Marks & Son stock ofclothing is the most important sale in New York. Hundreds are taking advantage The long men, the short men and the are fitted without ex 'ra charge. Only 8.40, 9.90, 12.30 and Great Sale To-Morrow 14.40 for suits that are well worth double.

SPECIAL.-China Silk Waist, made with double standing col-lar, separate belt, all lined, per-fitted linings, standing plaited collar, double ruffle down front, 2.79 extreme sleeves; worth $4.50, at. . 2.79 100 same style, in best quality figured China sliks, in an assortment of colors, all new 3.25 Spring shades, worth $5, at Changeable figured Taffeta silks ruffle, standing collar, wide gathered beit detached, immense 3.49 sleeves; value $6.98, at 3.49 SPRING JACKETS.

SPECIAL -- Ladies' Reefer Jackets, with extreme sleeves and 3.19 ripple back, real value $4.98, at... SPECIAL.—Ladies' Embroidered 4.98
Cloth Capes, real value $8.98, at 4.98

SPECIAL -Children's Reefers, 198 Bloomingdale Bros., 3d Ave., 59th & 60th Sts.

A GOOD TALK

How some houses expect to gain your confidence by advertising that which is impossible we are at a loss to understand. We refer to those houses who advertise extensively to furnish you with a complete catalogue and price list of their entire stock. This no live, conscientious house can do, as new and better styles and values are daily coming into the market, and a catalogue for to-day would be useless for to-morrow, and those houses who presume upon your credulity by offering you on are either dishonest in their intentions or admit they are not abreast the times with competition in styles, qualities or prices.

WE ASK YOU WHICH ARE THEY? WE HAVE NO CATALOGUE,

NO OTHER HOUSE

CAN DUPLICATE.

FORTY-TWO CENT : WE FURNISH A HOME COMPLETE

Furniture, Carpets, Stoves and Housefurnishing Goods At one price and that the lowest, CASH OR CREDIT.

Lord & Taylor, McCLAIN, SIMPSON & CO., ₹ 539-541 8th AVE., N. W. COR. 37th ST.

An item in Capes and one in Coats, of the most wonderful value ever offered; sold to-morrow at less than cost!

500 handsome tailor-made Imported Covert Cloth Jackets, in ight and medium shades of tans also Jackets of finest Chevrons, in black and navy, plain and moire trimmed, new back and latest collars and sleeves, worth 9.98, at

650 elegant Capes in best Broadcloth, Kersey and other cloths, handsomely trimmed in rich Black and Cream Laces, some entirely 1.98 and Cream Laces, some braided, and finished with ribbon ruche collar and large bow; others elaborately combined with cut jet and moire silk, worth $22.50, for 12.98

We Warrant Every Pair of Shoes for Wear.

Fine Calfskin Sewed Welt Lace and Blucher Shoes, newest Piccadilly styles, regular 4.00 goods, Sixth Ave. & 23d St.

SPECIAL AT

Black

Dress Goods.

New designs in Crepons. Crêpe de Chine, plain, embroidered, and wov-Silk Grenadines,

single and double widths, striped Morié or Satin, and Silk Gauze, Silk and wool figured

Lord & Taylor,
Broadway & 20th 84.

460,929

a gain 57,596 per day A gain |48,359 three years